

Space School for Educators!

International Space Exploration Educator Program
2nd - 8th, February 2020

This program offers Educators, or anyone involved in delivering STEM related education programs a unique opportunity to enhance their approach to teaching. The program is designed and delivered in partnership with the International Space Community and demonstrates the benefits of using space exploration in an educational context for all grades and levels.

- Tour NASA's Johnson Space Centre
- Meet NASA Astronauts, Engineers and Scientists
- Attend Space Centre Houston's Space Exploration Educators Conference
- Enjoy social events with NASA Astronauts, Engineers and Scientists
- Discover ways to inspire your students to follow STEM careers paths

Included

- 5 day professional development program
- Registration at SEEC
- Accommodation for 6 nights
- All meals
- Transport to and from airport
- Transportation in Houston
- Access to links and curriculum materials

NOT Included

- Return flights to Houston
- Travel insurance

Costs

$2600 (IPN Members)
$2750 (Non members).

More Info
valsyc@googlemail.com